This model for one player consists of two video screens, one on the top and another on the bottom, which are also touchscreens. The top screen shows the win plan, help and animations related to the themes which are developed in the bottom video screen.

In the main game, credits are inserted in the machine, where they are exchanged into "fichas" depending on the previously selected bet, by means of the movement of the "exchange arrow" that appears on the screen. Once the "fichas" are obtained, we can start playing the themes. We will select the bet that we are going to make in "fichas" and the chosen theme. Once the game is over, we can convert the "fichas" into cash prizes. Pressing the risk button, it is activated the drawing of the "fichas" to obtain a prize based on the number of "fichas" being played, and even nothing.

The machine has a total of 35 themes, which are selected by clicking on the corresponding icon that appears on the bottom touch screen, the base and the development of them are very similar.
